At a farewell banquet here to the officers of the Ninth Infantry, acting Civil Governor Luke E. Wright paid a glowing tribute to the military forces. He said the army under circumstances of surprising difficulty had paved the way for the work of the civil authorities, and that ony a few cases of friction between the two branches of government had oc-curred. General Chaffee, whose opinion might at times have differed from those of the civil authorities, had been, Gov-ernor Wright said, a loyal supporter of civil rule.

The committee of the government officials appointed by the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury to consider the subject of post-check currency, gave a hearing to the advo-cates of a bill to provide a system of postal currency recently introduced by Representative Gardiner, of Michigan, transmitting small sums through the Mr. C. W. Post, the originator of the plan, made a statement outlining it, and setting forth the needs of the business world for a more convenient method of ransmitting small sums through the mails. He said that, in case of the adoption of the idea, all rights under the pat ents would be assigned to the govern ment free of all cost.

Representative Gardiner advocated the favorable consideration of the measure and its provisions were further explained by Attorney D. E. Fox, who drafted it. The bills provide that all $1, $2 and $5 bills, except national bank notes, shall have blank lines upon their faces so that they may be converted at once into a check payable to a named payee, to be cashed at the postoffice named, and for the issuance of similar bills of the denominations of 5, 10, 25 and 50 cents.
